

The King & Queen Pageant will be held as part of Boston Pride's 40th Anniversary Celebration

Monday, June 7, 2010

Category Information:

The Boston Pride Committee has developed this pageant for entertainment purposes. You select which category you would like to participate in based on your own definition/display of your gender identity. In other words, the King category, for example is open to women dressing in male drag, men born men, transgender men, drag kings or anyone else who desires to compete in the category. Similarly, the Queen category is open to drag queens, women born women, transgender women or anyone else who desires to compete in the category. The goal is not to limit who can participate but to have each category open to all.

Rules & Regulations:

We will be selecting a maximum of seven contestants per category.

To apply, submit the following:

- Complete Application. Incomplete applications will not be considered.
- A headshot electronically to pageant@bostonpride.org.
- $10 application fee. If selected to compete in the Pageant, an additional $15 registration fee will be requested.

Complete application, headshot, and payment must be received by the Pageant Coordinator by Sunday, May 23. Applications will not be considered complete until all three pieces are received.

An email will be sent confirming receipt of complete application and will provide further instructions about the competition.

Only money orders or checks will be accepted for payment and should be made payable to Boston Pride. Please do not mail cash.

Mail forms and payment to: Boston Pride, 398 Columbus Avenue, #285, Boston, MA 02116.
Attn: Pageant.

There will be a mandatory Contestant Orientation on Sunday, May 23rd from 4 to 6 pm in Boston. Exact location will be announced to those selected to compete at the Pageant.

Winners of the King and Queen of Boston Pride 2010 Title will win a crown, the title, and the opportunity to represent Boston Pride during Pride Week. You must be available to Participate in the Pride Parade and Festival on Saturday, June 12. In addition, you will receive an all access pass for you and a guest to participate in all of the Boston Pride events on Saturday, June 12 and Sunday, June 13. We will have other prizes for all contestants as they become available.

If you have any questions, please email pageant@bostonpride.org

Categories to be judged at the Pageant: Pride Presentation, Talent, Evening Wear & Final Question

Pride Presentation: In this category, the judges are going to be looking for posture, creativity, and each contestant's presentation of what Pride means to them. After modeling, the contestant will step to the microphone and introduce themselves to the judges and audience. Be creative, different, radical, and imaginative! This category is worth 10 points.

Talent: This is one of the highest scored categories. This category is limited to 5 minutes and if a contestant exceeds that time, points will be taken away from the final score. Talent can come in many forms, so find an original way to express yours! This category is worth 20 points.

Evening Wear: Contestants may choose evening wear in their preferred color and style. Please keep in mind that it is NOT a costume. We are looking for style, color, best fit, elegance, best use of accessories including shoes and jewelry, hairstyle, and proper make-up. This category is worth 10 points.

Final Question: There will be a final question asked by the judges to the three highest scored finalists. Each contestant's answer and poise will help determine the winner.

Deadline for registration: Sunday, May 23, 2010 – Pageant will be held on Monday, June 7, 2010
